Dear Friends,

Summer surrounds us with abundant greens of countless leaves, and many colours of flowers and early fruits. We can spend time outside, under the skies, cloudy or blue.

I was lucky enough to see a dragonfly emerge from its larval case, and spread its wings in the sunshine to dry, before taking flight. Jesus observed: 'See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labour or spin. Yet not even King Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these.' (Matthew ch.6) Christian faith invites us to notice small wonders, and to be content among the riches of God's creation.

Wars bring worry; hard-selling adverts for things we don't need bring anxiety. In Jesus we are offered a different way: 'Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness.' We shouldn't hide away from the troubles of the world, but we can find our strength in God's goodness.

In Christ,
Rev. Stephen
